STRIKE TALK ONCE MORE

Houston, Tex., Sept. 23.—It is declared here that car shop men on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway struck for more money and better working conditions today.

Twenty-five men are out here. At Denison, Texas, 500 are reported out and at Smithville, Texas, seventy-five are reported on strike.

It is announced here that the order to strike came from union headquarters at Sedalia, Mo. It is said 3,000 men were ordered to quit.

Sedalia, Mo., Sept. 23.—The walkout today followed a refusal by the company to grant a conference. The local shops of the railway closed down last night announcing "general retrenchment," as the reason for an indefinite suspension. This action, it is now believed, was taken by the company in anticipation of today's move of the shopmen's union. In refusing the request for a joint conference made by the unions north and south of the Red river, company officials announced that conditions in the two districts were so different that a joint conference would be useless.

In addition to better general working conditions, the shopmen demand higher wages.

Davenport, Iowa, Sept. 23.—The International Association of Machinists, at its convention today, called a meeting of the national executive officers of the sheet metal workers, boiler makers, blacksmiths and pipelayers interested in the proposed strike on the Illinois Central railroad, and other Harriman lines. The meeting will be held in Davenport, Monday.

A MORE EFFECTIVE SCHEME.

"Are you in favor of having married men wear rings on their thumbs," Mrs. Ferguson asked.

SHE APPLIES FOR SECOND DIVORCE

Twice married and seeking the second divorce, is the history of the marital relationship of Eva M. Gale and Archie J. Gale, as related by Mrs. Gale in a petition for divorce filed in the district court today.

The petition relates that the parties were married in Ogden, May 21, 1906, and were divorced in the year 1909. They were married again October 13, 1910, in Salt Lake, but Mrs. Gale says she will have to again call on the court to divorce them. She alleges that Mr. Gale fails to support the family and that he spends his money for drink and in other dissipation.

They have two children, the care and custody of whom Mrs. Gale asks. She also wants reasonable alimony, $50 for attorney fees and the costs of suit.

SUGAR BEET HARVESTER BUILT

A sugar beet harvester a farming implement long needed in the agricultural industry of the world, will make its first appearance at the Four-State fair tomorrow as the invention of J. F. Sandberg, a blacksmith of Smithfield, in the Cache valley district.

Inventor Sandberg has already secured patents covering the new implement and has tested it in a rude form in the presence of a number of the leading sugar and beet men of the state. Even the crude model made a ninety per cent demonstration, a demonstration sufficiently satisfactory to interest men of finance and cause the incorporation of a company for the manufacture of the beet harvester.

The machine, which is to be exhibited at the fair, is now at the Western Foundry & Machine company's shop on Wall avenue. It represents the labor of the inventor for seven years and is expected to revolutionize the harvesting of sugar beets. The inventor claims that the implement will do the work of twenty men in the harvesting of beets. It will harvest five acres of sugar beets per day with the labor of one man and a team of horses. The machine will be sold at about $150 and will save in labor cost $28 per day.

The company which has been incorporated to manufacture the machines will be known as the "Sandberg Beet Harvester company." W. O'Kay of Salt Lake City has been elected president; W. D. Brown of Ogden, secretary and treasurer; George Wise Smith of Smithfield, vice president, and J. F. Sandberg and W. H. Smith of Smithfield directors.

DRUNKEN CROWD ON BRIGHAM TRAIN

Logan Journal:

People who came up on Wednesday evening's train tell of most disgraceful proceedings that occurred on the train after it left Brigham. Boozed, it seems flowed pretty freely at Brigham, and when the train reached there a horde of men and boys with armsful of whiskey and beer boarded the train and at once began raising Cain. Conductor James Mullaney did all he could to quiet them, and at last attached another car and placed the disorderly ones in it. Left alone, these riotous ones went at it. They hurled beer bottles hither and thither, breaking glass and other property, and finally put out the lights. The improved Junction another car was put on for them and an effort made to get officers enough to handle the crowd, but it was useless—they continued with their antics until Logan was reached, and perhaps after the train passed here, our informants getting off at this city.

Councilman Hayball was on the train and he says he has never witnessed such disgraceful scenes in his life. He made an endeavor to have the local police force at the depot when the train came in but the men were away from headquarters when he called and when they did receive word it was too late to do anything.

The conductors were helpless and he was so thoroughly disgusted that he said that he would rather resign than take charge of another train like that one.

WORK ON THE PANAMA CANAL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Less than one-fourth of all the earth and rock to be removed from the bed of the Panama canal was in place September 1. The excavation in Culebra cut during August reached the great total of 1,442,402 cubic yards, the best record for a rainy season month in the history of the cut.

The concrete buyers are keeping pace with the canal diggers and on September 9 they had placed over 64 per cent of the concrete for all of the vast locks on the canal.

The earth continues to slide down the steep banks at several places in Culebra cut, but the conditions there are more satisfactory than at any time since 1907. It has been necessary again to increase the estimate of the amount of material yet to be removed, but the engineers declare that this will not increase the cost of the work nor affect the time of completion, because improved methods have reduced the excavating charge as the work has advanced.

A TWO-STORY BUSINESS BLOCK

Excavators began work this afternoon on Hudson avenue, just north of the Howell building, for the erection of a $75,000 building by John N. Spargo. The building will be completed by January 1.

The new structure will be two stories in height and will have a frontage of four and one-half feet. It will be built of brick and will be a modern building in every respect. While the excavating is being done by Contractor Doyle, the contract for the building proper has not yet been let. The work of construction, however, will begin as soon as the excavating has been finished and the building will be ready for occupancy by the first of the year.

Directly on the north of the Spargo building, the Browning brothers are anticipating the erection of a large modern building. The plans for this improvement to Hudson avenue have not been completed and it has not been decided when the structure will be started.

ACCIDENT TO AVIATOR WALSH

After a successful flight at the fair grounds this afternoon, Aviator Walsh wrecked the front wheel of his machine and damaged one of his planes in alighting. The accident was caused by the wind dipping his machine as it neared the ground. Walsh was uninjured.

The aviator arose from the ground despite the heavy wind which was blowing at the time. A circular flight of eight minutes' duration was made and the biplane returned to the ground and dropped gracefully toward the earth. Just as the machine was about to touch the ground, the wind turned the biplane so that one of the planes struck the earth. The front wheel was torn from the machine and the plane was loosened.

It is expected that the mechanics will be able to repair the biplane for a flight tomorrow.

URGES USE OF A NEW GRAIN

Nephi, Sept. 21.—Superintendent P. V. Cardon of the Nephi substation is making arrangements to carry out a test of the much-talked-of improved winter emmer. Mr. Cardon, when asked about the grain, said:

"Dry farmers will be interested in knowing that the Nephi substation is preparing to make a thorough test of Professor Biffman's improved winter emmer. For several years past the station has been growing emmer of a similar nature and this year it yielded 73 bushels per acre. The improved type, however, is said to yield at a much higher rate, it being represented as having yielded as high as 185 bushels per acre on the Buffum farm at Worland," Wyo.

It is the desire of the state and government to know more of this grain, which, if it should yield as represented, would be a very valuable crop on the dry farms, as it is an excellent stock feed. For this reason, the station has received a bushel of seed through Prof. L. A. Merrill of the state, and several pounds from the government. The seed this year is selling for $10 per bushel.

F. S. KING WINS SHEEP PRIZES

Among the competitors were Freeman, Webb, Green and Moore, considered the best sheep men in the country.
